

ABOUT LCLAA

LCLAA is the leading national organization for Latino(a) and Immigrant workers. LCLAA was founded in 1972 out of the need to educate, organize and mobilize Latinos in the labor movement and has expanded its influence to organize Latinos in an effort to impact workers' rights and their influence in the political process. LCLAA represents the interest of more than 2 million Latino workers in the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO), The Change to Win Federation, independent unions and all its membership.

VISION AND HISTORY

We believe in the might of the labor movement. Through relentless power-building, we unify voices and bring people together in solidarity to press for social, economic, climate, and labor justice for the two million Latino workers and families we represent. And, we know it is integral to our mission and the livelihoods of our union partner members to protect the civil and constitutional rights upon which our democracy is founded.

That is why we're advocates, organizers, and leaders who have, since 1972, brought together unions, communities, and workplaces and have been uniting LCLAA chapters and members through union organization, leadership development, and programming.
